

BANKRUPTCY & BANKRUPTCY TRUSTEE SUPPORT SERVICES

Impartial Solutions for Complicated Issues

Taxation of bankruptcy estates is one of the more complex areas of the tax code. Court rulings have increased the confusion and management of bankruptcy related business matters which now require specialized knowledge and skills that span disciplines of intense analysis, forensic accounting, and bankruptcy law to reach a final resolution.

Dalby, Wendland & Co., P.C., professionals have experience specifically working with bankruptcy trustees and estates. We maintain a practical approach with an emphasis on providing complete and accurate services while keeping the final result in focus in order to provide a reasonable cost to the estate. Proper planning for the income tax consequences of transactions can also maximize the cash flow to the estate.
